“ Not only was Mr. Tomlinson (I never could call him Tommy) the most loving and caring teacher I ever had, I also felt like I had a friend I could always, always count on for love and advice. He had the wonderful gift of making us all feel like we were the most important people in the world.

Peggy, I know your heart is breaking, and ours are all breaking with you, but everyone in heaven is smiling now that he is with them.

Please call on us any time of day or night for any help you need and we will be there.

*Love,
Paula*

“ Dear Claudella & Peggy,
My heart is broken in your loss of Tommy. Since the age of 6 I've loved him. I have such sweet childhood memories of him trying to help me with math and living next door to all of you. I've never known a sweeter more caring man. His kindness has had such an effect on the youth of Tyler for so many years. Never have I ever heard anything but praise for the way he loved and treated his students. So many of us are better people to have known Tommy and heaven is a sweeter place now that he is there. You are all in my prayers. I know no matter what the reason, we are never ready to let go of the ones we love so much.

Love, Pam

“ ?Dear Claudella & Peggy

I have been out of town for some time and just read about Tommy in the Cooper Review. My heart is with you in your loss. You both have my love and prayers. What a wonderful dear man! That smile and those twinkling eyes just made you feel good to look in his face. I remember when I was a little girl and would spend the week with Aunt Frances and Uncle Danny and then come and spend the night at your home. I thought Peggy was so lucky to have a Daddy like Tommy. To me he was the perfect Daddy! As I grew up (and even though I wasn't around him a whole lot) I knew that Tommy was a very special man because of the way he loved people and his innate kindness and the very special way he treated his wife and daughter. Everyone who knew him loved and admired him. This old world would be a whole lot better place if there it were filled with men like Tommy Tomlinson! I will always treasure his memory!

“ *I am always saddened when someone dies, although they are at peace, we still miss them very much. Jesus Wept just before he resurrected Lazarus. What comforts me the most is the promises Jesus made of a resurrection (john 11:25) and of Seeing them again and Living Forever with our loved ones, in Paradise (John 3:16,36; Psalm 37:29) (luke 23:43). What also comforts me is that these promises may also comfort your family as well. ?Blessed are those who mourn, since they will be comforted? (math5:40; 2Cor1:3,4). “ Mr. Tomlinson followed me on KTBB when I worked overnights there in the late seventies. Although I went on to bigger and better things in my Broadcasting career, I never forgot how kind he was. I even do a little impersonation of him on my show occasionally. What a nice man. My best to his family.

“ To Mrs. Tomlinson, Peggy, Wayne and Matt and the entire family of a wonderful man. I was out of town and could not attend the service but I wanted you all to know what a blessing Mr. Tomlinson was to my life. He is someone who was always smiling and always positive. He remembered your name and made you feel special everytime you spoke with him. He loved all of you dearly and we all of us at JT knew how very proud he was of his beautiful daughter, Peggy.

My heart breaks for you all and I will keep you in my prayers. It is a privilege to have known each of you. You all mirror this wonderful man in your own lives and that is an amazing tribute to him. I know your trust in the Lord will keep you in this time of sorrow.

Love,

WE WERE SO BLESSED TO HAVE KNOWN HIM. WE SEND OUR DEEPEST SYMPATHY TO YOU CLADELLA, PEGGY AND ALL YOUR FAMILY.*

“Tommy Tomlinson was a giant of a man. People who knew him always looked up to him and admired him.

As a teacher, he always worked to instill the love of math in his students. Above this goal, he inspired everyone to reach far and believe that success could be achieved. He believed in the true worth of everyone and helped people see that value in themselves.

As a friend and fellow math teacher, Tommy was an example of all that is good in life. His kind and gentle nature also endured him to all that knew him.

I am so sorry for this great loss of a wonderful man.

“ Mr. T was one of the best teachers and unofficial guidance counselors I have ever had the good fortune to experience. After high school, he coached me when I was worked at the old KDOK/KNUE and he worked at KTBB. Long after my days at JT (and in his math class), he kept up with my life and my family asking my mom every time he saw her how "his" kids were doing. Much more than a teacher, he will be sorely missed as a good friend and mentor.

“ WHAT A BIG HOLE IS GOING TO BE LEFT IN THE CITY OF TYLER. MOST EVERYONE KNOWS TOMMY AND CLAUDELLA. FOR ALL OF US THAT GREW UP WITH PEG, HE WAS A VERY SPECIAL PERSON IN OUR LIVES. BEING PEG'S DAD AND NOT JUST THE TEACHER HE BECAME A GOOD FRIEND THAT WE COULD TALK TO. HE WAS ALWAYS TELLING US WE WERE A SPECIAL GROUP OF KIDS AND THAT WE WERE ALL GOING FAR. WE WERE LOOKING FORWARD TO OUR NEXT REUNION SO COULD SHOW TOMMY HOW FAR WE WERE GOING. WHAT A GIANT OF A MAN TO LOSE. HE WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN AND WE WILL ALL CARRY A LITTLE PIECE OF HIM IN OUR HEARTS. JUST HAVING PEG HERE WITH US WILL ALWAYS BE A REMINDER OF THE GREAT MAN. HE WILL BE DEARLY MISSED BUT NEVER FORGOTTEN. WE WILL ALL WRAP OUR ARMS AROUND CLAUDELLA, PEGGY, WAYNE AND THE REST OF THE FAMILY SO THAT THEY ME BE COMFORTED.

“ Claudella,
Goodness, it won't seem right not hearing his sweet voice on Sunday mornings, waving across the Civic Theater, the hugs he always had , no matter where we were his first comment was always" How are my kids?" Even though DeBe was the only one who actually had him for a teacher, he knew and loved Smitty too. The feeling was certainly returned by them, they always wanted to know "how's Mr.T. doing?"
Peggy even though you were ahead of my kids, we knew you during those high school days and have followed yours and Wayne's life through you folks.
God Bless you and give you strength for the days ahead. Our Prayers and Love will be with you.
