“ Our love and deepest sympathy to a wonderful family. May God bless you with His peace at this difficult time.

We knew J.B. as a prayer partner who was committed to the ministry of intercessory prayer. He worked very hard to organize prayer teams and men's prayer breakfasts. His consistency, faithfulness, and passion for prayer was an example for us all to follow.

I also worked with J.B. in the church office. I named him our "Minister of Everything Else" because he was willing to help out in any area with a need! No job was too great or too small. His sense of humor often helped us keep things in perspective, and his undying loyalty to our Church and Church Staff was another example for us to follow.

There will be a void in our Church and in our hearts, but we can see him rejoicing and singing today in Heaven. We thank God for witnesses like J.B. who have gone on before us and showed us how to run the race.

“Happy Birthday, Daddy. I miss you down here more than you can imagine. I know the angels are celebrating with you today. Not only your physical birthday, but your heavenly birthday as well. Don't worry about us. We're all doing okay.

"Turn your eyes upon Jesus. Look full in his wonderful face. And the things of earth will grow strangely dim. In the light of His glory and grace." I love you, Daddy.
