“ I met Jack when my Dad became ill and we asked him to take care of Daddy's lawn. Little did we know how close he would become to Mr. Bud and Miss Rose. We began to refer to him as The Bynum's 3rd son. This was such a special man, he gave of himself so much that he would go over and spend lunch time with them and take Dad for rides in his beloved caddy. I'd like to think that not only is Jack having a reunion with his own family , but also spending time with his adopted family. Charles and I will always think of Jack as our brother also.
