“ Sweet Jackson will be greatly missed by all that he touched in his all to short life. Jeff, Marci, Jacob and all the Floyd/Feliciano family I send my love, prayers and wishes to all of you. I know it has been a very difficult time for all of you. God has a purpose for all that happens and I am sure something great will come out of Jackson's life while here on earth. He is running with the angels and visiting with his great grandfather and other relatives up in heaven, he is no longer suffering but looking down on all of you that he loved and watching out for all. God Bless all of you.

“ Dear Marci, Jeff and family,
I am so sorry for your loss. You are such a tribute to what God chose as "Earthly" parents. You loved / love Jackson for the time he was here with you. He is now with his Heavenly Father who loves him even more than you. So hard to imagine - but true. You will continue to be in my prayers and God will bring blessings through this unbelievable trial.

“ Dear Family, Our prayers and blessings go out to you. Over the 33 years of our marriage, we have buried three sons: Ricky age 16 in 1999, Jimmy age 17 in 2001 and Steven age 18 months in 1981. There is nothing harder than saying goodbye and burying a child. Through these trials we have encountered God's blessings through our family and friends and continue to do so. At age 50, we adopted our 5th child, Michael Terry Blevins. I am 56 years old and now attending kindergarten again! We continually pray for your family and have done so for these many months now. We now pray especailly for your baby to come. I am going to write you a letter, and would love to hear back from you. If you wish to call me, a mother who has buried 3 children -- my cell phone is 281-731-3919. I am hoping that you have a chapter of Compassionate Friends in your vacinity. This is an organization composed of parents whose children have died. We found the members of this organization to be good listeners, most understanding and a great source of support. Their arms are wide and big and will be able to absorb some of your tears.

I regret that I will be unable to attend the funeral. My son does have school that day -- the reason for my being unable to make the trip. I will be in Austin next weekend and hope to see Chantel then. If you ever come to Houston, we would love to meet you.

Your updates in the Care Pages and been very informative and endearing. I know that many times it has been hard to update the Care Pages, but your words have been beautiful and endeared Jackson to us. Jackson will continue to be mentioned in my prayers, by name, for the rest of my life along with the names of our sons.

Chantel is a friend of my daughter, Melissa from the University of Texas. She was one of the bridesmaids in Melissa's wedding.

We are most saddened by your loss.

With a tearful heart,

“ Jeff & Marci-

I am so sorry to hear about Jackson, but like you all wrote...he has gone on to a place where he will be "sick free". I have been keeping up with Jackson through the care page and through the League and you all have ALWAYS been in my thoughts and prayers. May this be a time for strength in numbers

“ Marci & Jeff-

I want you both to know that our hearts are saddened for you as you trudge through this MOST difficult time a parent could ever face. I know you are comforted by the peace only GOD can provide you right now. Just know we are praying continually for you.

I want you to also know, as I am sure you do, that Jackson;s life, as short as it was has done so much for so many people. First, he made many of us aware of a disease that most of us never knew existed so that now, because of HIM, we can help others. Second, he brought people together, praying, asking God for help as a unit- just as God intends for us to do. Third, he strengthened families all across the country. He Brought families together, made us appreciate each other & our children, listen more & play all the more because of Jackson. Fourth, I am SURE that he brought some people to believe in the power of prayer or even in Jesus that otherwise would have never believed in either. Finally, Jackson, at only 2 years old, has created love, hope, smiles, wholeness, unity, prayer, faith, preserverance, purpose, compassion & the undeniable truth that GOD IS REAL & IS ALIVE & IS IN CONTROL... FOR OUR GOOD all in our hearts. We are all better people because of Jackson

Thank you for sharing Jackson with us. We all have an incredible angel looking down from Heaven at us giving us one more thing to look forward to seeing when WE go HOME!!

Love you all so much-

Rest assured Jesus is holding not only Jackson, in HIS arms right now but you three too!

“Joyce and I send you our love and lift you up in our prayers. Having also experienced the death of a child, our 23 year-old daughter, I know the deep loss and emptiness that you must be feeling. May the joy that Jackson brought into your life fill your memories and temper your grief. May your faith strengthen you and provide hope and peace in the days ahead.

“You can hear Sweet Jackson singing in Heaven right now...

*Jesus loves me this I know,
For the Bible tells me so.
Little ones to Him belong.
They are weak but He is strong.*

*Yes, Jesus loves me.
Yes, Jesus loves me.
Yes, Jesus loves me.
The Bible tells me so.*

J,

“ *Marci & Jeff.....when your aunt Bev told me about Jackson , I immediately put him on our prayer list network and we have all prayed for him daily. I met your aunt, and I did meet your mother in BR when your grandmother was there, and I was there 6 weeks with my son in the cardiac unit. They befriended me-this person from the north.and we have kept in touch for over a year now. You have been through so much and your courage and faith inspire us all. You will certainly miss your little Jackson, but now he will intercede for you up there in heaven.
God bless you all and thank you for sharing.*

“ My favorite song, "I Can Only Imagine" comes to mind when I think of Jackson dancing face to face with Our Lord!

If you can think of how happy Jackson is at this time, it may ease the pain of loss.

Dear Feliciano/Floyd families, you have been on my mind, in my heart and in my prayers since first learning of Sweet Jackson's illness.

Even though his life was short, Jackson has touched many, many of whom you may never know about. Jackson lives on in the hearts of those that love him and, I truly feel, in God's huge plan, something positive will come out of this heartbreaking tragedy.

May God sustain you and the love of family and friends uplift you.
