“ I remember Barbara & I taking the boys and my granddaughter to the Children's Museum in Houston. Jaron & Madison were little, maybe 3 or 4. Jaiden impressed me so much that day. He could have been the typical sulky pre-teen and grumbled about the museum being a place for babies. Jaiden didn't. He got into showing the little ones how things worked, asking them to try new things and showed them how much fun it was to explore. My Madison couldn't climb the rock wall and Jaiden kept encouraging her and taught her how to do it. He managed to get her all the way to the top and back down. He was so patient & loving with both Jaron & Madison. And so polite! He was a pleasure to be around.

Kerry and JD you raised a delightful young man. He was only yours for a little while before he went back to God, but while he was here he made an impact. I know I was impressed every time I was around him.

Your family is in our heart and prayers.

Sincerely,
Karen & David Humphrey
& Family
