

James Glenn Berry

March 1, 1948 - April 5, 2015

Services for Jim Berry will be held on Thursday, April 9, 2015 at 11:00 AM at Stewart Family Funeral Home, 7525 Old Jacksonville Highway in Tyler with Dr. David O. Dykes officiating.

Mr. Berry, 67, of Tyler, passed away Sunday, April 5, 2015 after a three year battle with cancer.

Born in Fort Worth and raised in Winnsboro, Jim moved to Tyler when he married in 1966. He was the co-owner of Crow Towing until his retirement in 2005 and partner in Berry Marble from 1993 to present. Jim also pursued a love of golf and fishing, as well as car racing with his son. He was deeply devoted to his family, a loving husband, an inspirational dad and the most caring grandfather.

Jim is survived by his wife, Susan; son, Craig and daughter, Angie and two grandchildren, Molly and Eli. He will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

Visitation will be on Wednesday, April 8, 2015 from 5:00 to 7:00 PM at Stewart Family Funeral Home.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Swim across America benefitting Cancer Research: <http://www.swimacrossamerica.org/goto/Berry> or The Hospice of East Texas Foundation, 4111 University Blvd., Tyler, 75701

“ I'll miss my cousin, he and my sister used to lock me in the barn at our mothers parents farm running and laughing. I'll always remember Jimmy and Tommy Anthony getting ready for Jim's marriage to Susan---so many years ago! RIP my brother.

“ Susan, Craig and Angie,

I have had Jim on my mind and heart and wondered how he was feeling. Tried calling his cell, today and got no answer. Concerned, I checked the obituaries and saw that he had passed earlier this month. Words can't express my sadness. He was as close as a brother to me. So many great memories of our childhood. I am so glad we had time to visit by phone in these last few months and that I was able to wish him happy birthday on 3/1. I loved him so much and will miss him dearly. Leslie and I are praying for your family that God will bring you His comfort and peace. Know that you are loved and in our prayers, always.

“ Susan, Craig, and Angie,

James and I were so shocked and sad to read Jimmy's name under the deaths today in the Tyler paper. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family.

We have talked about all of the good times we shared together.

We love all of you, and we hope you find comfort in the loss of Jimmy in the great memories you have.

Love,

James and Sharon Moyers
