“ My fondest memory of my Uncle Roy was when he helped me get started on the Hammett family Genealogy. He sent me a package with his family sheets with Grandmother's brothers, sisters, and ancestors along with Xerox copies of pictures of Grandfather Sam Crowe, and his family. We emailed each other for months, while I continued his Hammett research. Getting to know him was a joy in my life. He was a true gentleman, a kind and wonderful uncle. He will surely be missed by all. My thoughts and prayers are with him and his family now. Love and God Bless All.

“ So very sorry for your loss. You must feel so blessed to have had him for as long as you did, getting to know his Grandchildren and Great-Grandchildren. He was surely a blessed man. I remember when he would come to visit Grandmother, how attentive and caring he was to her. He was so soft-spoken and kind around us, and when he was with his brothers and sisters, they enjoyed their time together, laughing and reminiscing about the old days!

You all will be in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I always remember as a child how impressed I was that Uncle Roy was an engineer. Later after I lost my father, Murry, I would always get tears when I saw him because I imagined Daddy would look just like him if he had lived. Uncle Roy was an admirable man! I was proud to call him my uncle!

“ I remember going to church with Mr. & Mrs Crowe and how nice they were. I remember their children also. My husband worked at the Highway Dept. when Mr. Crowe was the Resident Engineer and Mrs Crowe and I worked together at Deep East Texas Electric Co-op. To me they were Roy & Audry Crowe.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of Daddy. But I'll never forget him giving Jason his first bath when we brought him home from the hospital in August 1970. Someone posted on Facebook that he was "a giant of a man." He was...and he was so tender bathing a newborn with his big hands.

Sarah, what a wonderful memory of your father. How many men bathed their new born baby, especially, in those days. He truly was a giant of a man. Much Love.
