

James "Donnie" Brooks

July 16, 1932 - September 16, 2009

A memorial service for James Donald "Donnie" Brooks, 77, of Whitehouse, will be held on Saturday, September 19, 2009, at 11:00 AM at Stewart Family Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Kim Beckham officiating. A private burial will be held prior to the service under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home. Mr. Brooks passed away, Wednesday, September 16, 2009 at his residence. He was born July 16, 1932 in Pilot Point. Mr. Brooks was a longtime member of Central Baptist Church. He was a graduate of Tyler High and worked as a draftsman at Trane for 25 years. He was a devoted husband and father who enjoyed watching his children and grandchildren play sports. His family is already looking forward to a joyful reunion in Heaven. Donnie is survived by his loving family including his wife, Geraldine Brooks of Whitehouse; sons, Steve Brooks and wife Lynn of Tyler, Tony Brooks and wife Becky of North Richland Hills; grandchildren, Matthew, Morgan, Payton, Benjamin, and Eden. The family will receive friends following the service. For more information or to express condolences, visit www.stewartfamilyfuneral.com.

“ Steve,

I was so sorry to hear about your dad's sudden death. I know this is a hard time for you and your family so just know that my thoughts and prayers go out to you.

He was a great father to you and your brother and a great husband to your mom and I know you all will miss him tremendously.

*Thinking of you all,
Diane*

“ Steve & Tony - I have wonderful memories and stories about your Mom. As a teenager, she babysit me and my twin sister, Gay at Aunt Rube's & Ada Momma's house (as we called her). Siby was so fun, and we loved her so much. I didn't get to know your Dad that well, as I moved to Dallas back in the 60's. I would love to share some stories of your Mom if you'd like to contact me. Please do so if you like at your convenience.

My thoughts and prayers are with you all. I am so sorry for your deep loss.
