It doesn't seem right for good people to be taken when there is so much bad still left in this world, but I know God has a plan for us. Gene and James are with Him now. Betty, I will be praying for you. I do know what you are going through; I miss Gene everyday & some days still seem unbearable. “ I'm honored to be able to say I have been friends with James for almost 30 years. James was a very special person who was dedicated to his family, job, co-workers and friends. A true Christian. He will be greatly missed for the knowledge he possessed for his job and the kindness he had for his fellow man. I will miss him dearly but cherish the special memories.

“ Betty, just a note to share a little of my personal encouragement to you. The last three years have meant so very much to my life through our Sunday School Class. You and James are a significant reason I can say this. Knowing the love and support from you both has been priceless. James was so very faithful to internalize our Bible study and find ways to let its' truths shape his attitude and actions. Every time I sit and talk about James I come up with new things to thank the Lord for. We never catalog all the good things from our Christian relationships but they are never far from us when the dark days appear.

James continued to carry his love for Christ, for you, for the class and for family in a very visable way right through all the days God gave him. He was truly a mirror for the world to see God's goodness and Grace. What more can we be? Someone has said it's not so important what happens to us in this life but how we handle what happens to us. After all, that is the only thing we can really control. James did this so very well.

I must also tell you that he would be so very proud of the love and care you put into carrying out his wishes for our celebration of his life.

Let the SS class that he loved be a conduit for the love of Christ to work through in the days ahead.

We love you and will be praying for God's best for you and the entire family.

“ *Betty,
We are so very sorry for your loss of such a sweet, loving man. You two made such a beautiful couple. It is so hard not to question why he was taken, yet we know God always has the ultimate plan in store for each of us. It was very obvious that James loved our Lord dearly, and he faced this very difficult challenge so gallantly with God right at his side. You graciously helped him through this struggle with your tender, loving care. James will be greatly missed by each of us in Sunday School..... how I always loved to hear him pray. God Bless you & yours.*

“ Betty, the funeral was so special and it was so obvious how loved James was. What a tribute to his Christianity. My prayer for you today and in the coming months is that you have comfort and peace and know that you are loved and prayed for daily. You're family is beautiful and your grandkids are so YUMMY. Love ya lots and remember...we live close so call me and we will get together.

“ Dear Betty,

*You are one of the sweetest, kindest friends I have and I don't get to see you enough. Bo enjoyed knowing James and he had a great sense of humor. Sometimes Bo mentioned something he said in Sunday School he thought was funny. I'm sorry a person like you has to go through this. James was such a wonderful person and I feel it's a waste when a strong Christian person is not here anymore. I felt that way about Bo's passing. I think death is an arbitrary event, caused by the world and sin. God didn't take them, but I'm not an expert--I'm not sure of that. If He did, He had His reasons, but I don't think He would because He loves us. My prayers are with you. Could we get together some time? I'll give you a call in about a month or a few weeks?
Love, blessings, peace, and prayers,
Lauri*
