“ For many years, I remembered my cousin as the one in Tyler, Then I moved to Texas and found a loving and caring cousin that had family as the center of her life. But the family of cousins, aunts, and uncles was large and spread out. But she loved each one as if they were the only one to love.

“ Jan is home at last. These past years have had the joy of family and grand kids etc, but she has not been herself since the love of her life, Joe, died. What a unique, solid, great couple. They are together with all the saints of history. I so enjoyed talking to both Jan and Joe. Top notch folks!
