Mrs. Alsup passed away Thursday, June 29, 2023 in Tyler. She was born October 22, 1956 in Tyler to William F. Helms Sr. and Mary Ford Helms.

Jana was a faithful member of The Lighthouse Church, of Liberty City, Tx. She was raised in Kermit, Tx from 1956 to 1975. Her family moved to Shreveport, where she attended beauty school. She held the position of a cosmetologist for 47 years. Jana loved doing hair and her clients became more like family. For her past times she enjoyed taking trips with her daughter, riding horses, taking care of birds and her plants. Nature was mom's way of relaxation; the beautiful flowers and the sweet bird songs always made her smile.

Jana was preceded in death by her dad, William F. Helms Sr, mother, Mary Ford Helms, sister, Marsha Helms and her brother, William F. Helms Jr. She is survived by her loving family including her daughter, Jessica Blackmon Carver; her niece, Jill Helms; her stepmother, Lynn Helms; and her stepbrothers, Dalen Lindsey and Stephen Starkey; along with many other family members.

Pallbearers will be Dalen Lindsey, Michael Helms, John Gribble, Jeffery Pugh, Shawn Childress, and Aaron Carver. Honorary pallbearers will be James Helms and Raymond Helms.

Visitation is scheduled from 6:00 - 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, July 6, 2023 at Stewart Family Funeral Home, 7525 Old Jacksonville Highway, in Tyler.

In lieu of flowers and plants, memorials may be made to your favorite organization or charity. Jana has left many plants, flowers, and a mean 25 yr. old Quaker Parrot to her daughter.

Even though we didn't keep up with each other as often as we should have I did know what was going on from our mutual friend Carol. I loved Jana and will always remember her sweet spirit.
