

Jane Margaret Havens

February 24, 1917 - April 4, 2013

A graveside service for Jane Margaret Havens, 96, of Rockwall, will be held on Saturday, April 20, 2013, at 2:00 p.m., at Cathedral in the Pines Cemetery, with Rev. Mark Skorheim officiating.

Mrs. Havens passed away April 4, 2013 at her residence in Rockwall. She was born February 24, 1917 in Rocky Run, Illinois to I.W. and Jeanette Triboulet Quick.

Jane and her husband Keith S. Havens moved to Emerald Bay in 1980. He passed away in 1995. She then moved to Tyler in the late 1990s, and then to Rockwall in 2011 to be close to family. Jane was a teacher and taught first grade in Iowa, Illinois and Minnesota. She enjoyed traveling, reading and playing board games with her family and friends.

Jane was preceded in death by her husband of 53 years, Keith S. Havens; her parents; brothers, Gaylen and Sam Quick; and nephews, Thomas and Joseph Quick.

She is survived by her loving family, including three nieces, Jane Chancellor of Keokuk, Iowa; Jennifer Davenport of Heath, Texas; and Mary Joan Quick of Waterloo, Iowa; by nephews, Sam Quick of Jacksonville Beach, Florida; and Steve Quick of Austin, Texas.

If desired, memorials may be made to Heritage Hospice, 1315 Brookside Dr., Hurst, TX 76053 or Faith Community Church, 17833 US 69, Tyler, TX 75703.

“ I don't know what made me look for Jane on google, but she was my mentor in my student teaching from 1965. I was at Lowry with her in a 1st-2nd grade. I remember fun lunches with her and her friends before I had to head back to the U by bus. I got married a week after graduation in 1965. Still have Jane and Keith's gift to us. We have been married almost 54 years and I had a wonderful 35 year teaching career in second grade in Red Wing, MN. Don't know if anyone will ever see this, but it's been wonderful to remember her. We visited her in Roseville with our daughter in about 1969.

“ Sincere sympathy on the passing of a wonderful lady, sweet Jane Havens. I am glad to have had the privilege of knowing her through my job and will treasure the times I had gone to her home in Tyler on business; she would invite me to spend a few minutes and tell me of all the travels she and her husband had embarked on. She lived a long and beautiful life, and now she is having everlasting life in Heaven. God Bless all her family.

“ I will miss hearing stories about Aunt Jane's adventures in recent years. Her strong spirit and love of life touched my heart and gifted me with many smiles that return unbidden when I think of her. I wish I could have sat beside her when she was experiencing her first "spa day" with Jennifer.

"The heart remembers most what it has loved best." Aunt Jane's memory will always shine bright and warm in the hearts of her family.

“ Lighting a candle to shine with love, yellow for a sweet rose of Texas and reminder of the Lady who gave us such wonderful advice even back on our wedding day so many years ago when I carried yellow roses. We love you Aunt Jane.. Judy and Sam
