“ Janet was one of the sweetest people I have ever known. My whole life she, Roy, Cindy, Debbie and Mike were around our family. Janet was always so sweet to us kids. I have no words to comfort her kids and grandkids. They had the best Mom Grandmom anyone could ask for. Love you all

“ My grandma always was there for me and took care of me the very best. She has never onve in all her and my years yelled at me. She made sure to remind me often that "Amy" means beloved. And how she got to take me home with her when i was just born because my mama had got sick. Thats why she loved me so much. I miss seeing her eat her cottage cheese while reading a love novel. Or going up the stairs at the house on Jardine Rd. to go do papa's ironing. She was a great wife and even better grandma. She told me that my body is a temple and to take care of it. I love that beautiful little lady and always will. And I know she is up there with my Papa Roy and my mom Cindy and my son Cody. And I know that there is a reason for everything and I will see her again one day. I love you grandma.
