“ My condolences go out to your family during this difficult time. I had the pleasure of meeting Jason in our MIT Class for PoolCorp. He and I had to partner up throughout the course over the past 2 years. Very polite, respectful young man. He spoke about his animals and fiancé. We all were making plans to meet up again next year to share our work stories, failures and successes. He will truly be missed. Rest in Paradise Jason.

“ There are so many memories that I have of Jason in such a short period of time. He was a huge animal lover and this story shows that for sure. We were at a get together in the apartments and it started pouring rain. My dog Shy was staying in the backyard at my parents house in Dallas. When it would rain my dog would literally stand in the pouring rain instead of going into the dog house like normal dogs. Jason insisted that we go get her. We got to my parents house and not even thinking I brought shy into there house. We got ready to leave and I just opened the bawk door not thinking. Shy took off out the back door.. I hadn't put on her leash!! For 2 1\2 hours we drove around looking for Shy in the pouring rain.. I was heart broken, but Jason wasn't giving up! We drove around one more time to see a neighbor with my dog Shy on a leash. We were so excited! If it wasn't for jason not giving up on looking for her we probably would have never found her. He will be missed tremendously. Here are a few pictures I have of jason :)

“ Deepest sympathies to Sheri and family. Sheri is the daughter of my cousin (technically stepdaughter, but family is family and we don't use "step" in our family), so Jason would have been my second-cousin. Jason, I wish I could have known you. You sound like a wonderful young man. Sheri, my heart goes out to you, and my prayers go out for you, Teri and the rest of the family. God bless.

Jason was polite, kind and thoughtful. He called me at home on a Saturday to wish me happy birthday. Everyone who knew him loved him. He is already so dearly missed here at SCP. He had a bright future with the company, and was so excited about his recent promotion.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Jason for the last few years. He always had a smile and loved to play pranks, and we had alot of fun at work.

One memory I have is when I went home for Christmas break to Minnesota, I really hated packing peanuts and our employees knew it. They had saved up packing peanuts from throughout the year. I came back to work after the first of the year and found my office covered in packing peanuts, they were in the desk, in each drawer and even placed within gloves and hats that I had in my desk drawer and within other items in my office, not a detail was missed. This is just one example. I am not sure if he was the mastermind behind it or not.

Another one is when he would always mess with my chair at work. I would sit down and almost fall out of the chair. He would always get a kick out of my reaction....

He will be missed. He was a great co-worker, and a great friend. He was a person that brought a great spirt and work ethic to work each day. My prayers are with the family, and friends.

“ I am Jason's Aunt Teri. One of the funniest memories I can think of now is when Jason was maybe 4 years old and his mom, brother Justin and him stayed the night at my house. It was Christmas season and I had my tree up & decorated and most of my presents bought and wrapped beautifully under the tree. A lot of my gifts were gourmet chocolates and candies. We woke up in the morning and Jason had woke before us. He had unwrapped all of the presents and opened the boxes and had helped himself to a little bit of everything. I remember I was horrified and amused all at the same time. I am sure I will have more memories to share.

Jason, my beautiful honey, words cannot express my pain. We shared many memories in over two years together. My heart hurts, but knowing you are at peace and with your father, cousin and Georgie, can give me some closure. I know you loved your family, friends and animals so much with so much compassion you couldn't even hurt a bug..I loved that about you! We had our moments but overall we know we couldn't stand being apart. Your silly jokes, gorgeous eyes and smile was something I couldn't resist. Rubbing my back when working on my computer at night and being a gentleman when needed, those are things I can never forget and will truly miss, your touch was so calming and the food you cooked was great! We did love cooking new things together from pizzas to pies to burritos, cream cheese jalepenos, you always were thinking of something great. You were always working hard to ensure you were taking care of your customers and cherished your co-workers very much!. You are a great heart, Jason. I will forever miss and always love my best friend and partner. May you rest in peace...with so much love...love you always..

Sheri, Justin, Anthony, Caraway, Coin Family, and all the aunts, uncles, grandparents and friends of Jason, words cannot express my sympathy and heartache. You all knew Jason growing up and he was always bringing up memories of his childhood family and friends. I may have not known you all in person, however we do share memories of this one individual together. I hope these pictures can express his love of laughter and being silly and can bring up your own happy memories of him. I pray for comfort for us all and bring peace to our hearts. God Bless you all.,,

Jason , I know I hadn't seen you in some years, but for the many years I spent at your family's house on University in Lewisville, I truly felt like I was part of the family. You treated me like more than Justins friend, you treated me like family, like a brother. I have many good memories, chillin in your room, shooting pool, riding in that red camaro amongst other things. Thank you for always treating me so good, I will always remember you and miss you. I love you , God bless you and Rest in Peace - Eddie Miller
