“ He will always be remembered as you share the stories and the memories of how he lived his life and how very much he meant, may you find comfort...And, throughout this difficult time, may you also know the deep sympathy and concern that is felt for you and all your family. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5

“ Peggy, Leigh Ann & Tim we would like to express our prayers and thoughts to you and family. May God bless you and give you strength at this time of loss. Jim was a true and trusted friend more like a brother for over 60 years we shared personal and everyday problems together all these years. I would not have wanted anyone better to be at my side. May God bless his soul. We regret that we will not be able to attend his services since we will be in Kentucky but we will continue to keep you and family in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I consider myself lucky to have met Jim, he always has your back, whether it was a cautionary word, encouragement, or assistance in some form. No one I know can say their life was lesser for having known him and I agree.

“ I know that anyone who knew my Dad thought very well of him. For those who didn't know him very well, let me tell you - he was one of a kind! My dad had a sense of humor that would infect you. He chose to see the bright and comical side of life. Don't we wish we all could. I have enjoyed a very special relationship with my father. I could talk to him about anything - no matter how personal. He was a very special man and will be sorely missed, but his kindness and generosity will live on through all of us who knew and loved him. Peace be with him always.
