“ Jean was my godmother, and she was in my life from the day I was born, being the first to hold me even before my own mother (she loved to remind me of that!). She and her husband Roger were great friends to my parents, and lived in the same golf community after they all retired. Jean was always sweet and kind to me and my family, a faithful friend to my parents and godmother to me. I remember many times visiting Jean and Roger, first in Dallas and later in Bullard. I know that all good things must end, but Jean will be sorely missed. I love you, Jean.

We were so very sorry to learn about Jean's passing. She was our sister Mary Anne's neighbor and friend for many years and....she became our friend. Due to the distance, we didn't have many opportunities to get together with Jean, yet, we stayed in touch. We will miss her and extend our sincerest sympathies to Jean's family.
