“ Oh my gosh I am so taken aback! Jean and I were friends back in our 20s... Jean and I wanted to be part of a softball team at The Village and so did I—we were both very competitive and very alpha and we weren't sure who was going to take charge of the team. Lol but we both appreciated each other's Athletic abilities.... my brother who is the wrestling coach at Saint Marks, I persuaded him to be our softball coach for our weekend games. We all became great Friends, actually my brother ended up marrying a third baseman Delynne. But I digress, Jean and I became great friends along with our friend Lani Jacobs! We stayed in touch for years in years in years even after her marrying Gerry/—in fact you all came to my wedding in New Orleans! I was so happy to have you all there!

Gerry, I am so sad sad sad and I'm so sorry that I have not kept in touch! I lost my husband almost 2 years ago and I can understand and feel your loss as well. I'm so sorry I was not there to celebrate her life! He was awesome and my entire family adored her beyond words!

I remember her having a family dinner with my mom and dad, us being Irish Catholics, and Jean being from a German family... We've made mention of the stern Germans... I guess it's one of those jokes that you have to be there, but we roared laughing! God bless you Gerry and your family!

“ Jean was a very good friend of my late wife, Ellen Marie Hughes. I remember us often sitting with her and her husband Gary at Robert E. Lee High School's football games. sometimes I jokingly referred to her as "Jean BeQuick" as in the children's nursery riddle. Truly the world has lost another great person, yet our loss is also Heaven's gain!

“Juaquina” and I, “La Dawnita”, shared many years together at Behavioral Health Center, Tyler. We’d greet each other everyday by our pet names and set out once again to help others fight mental illness! We shared many stories, laughs, and tears about our lives and families! She was my friend and mentor all in one! She was also a very effective and compassionate counselor! There are few that are as genuine and caring as Jean! Her strength and faith in God, were exemplary and I will truly miss my kind, witty, brilliant , and beautiful friend until I see her again!!! God bless you Garry ,Andrew and Lilly... she loved you all SO MUCH! You will be in my prayers!

“ Jean has been my dearest oldest friend for 36 years. We loved God together laughed together shopped together became therapists together had sons together. I will miss her wicked sense of humor and logical German brain! This morning as I was praying about her the Lord showed her dancing with Him. I will miss until I join her in heaven for eternity!!!! My prayers and love to her family and friends and clients she has walked with for so many years! Cheryl Rutherford

“ Mrs Quick was such an amazing lady, she was like another to me. We had a tradition of going out to Andrew’s parents house on the Fourth of July and she would have the table set with all kinds of food, because Andrew and I like to eat. She would show us pictures of the bass she would catch, she was always so happy. Maybe because her catches were bigger than Andrew and Mr. Quick’s haha
