“ I have sweet memories of Jeffrey in PK at St. Theresa's Catholic school. I was lucky to be one of his teachers that year. It was a pleasure to watch him grow there and on through 6th grade. He was a sweet little boy!

Words escape us at this time of sorrow but our faith gives us hope in the promise of his eternal life in Christ. In that we can find solace.

God bless you, Jeffrey!

“ Kate and family, Sharon, Charlie, Kenneth, and Sarah... We were greatly saddened to hear of the sudden loss of Jeffrey. You are all in our prayers and hope that you will find comfort in the memories of the love and life you shared with him. We were neighbors of the Elizondo family and knew Jeffrey since he was about 8 years old. ALWAYS a great kid, then became a wonderful young man, husband and father. Sending our love and praying for God's Blessings, His Comfort and Care for all of you. Steve & Betty Keys

You and Jeff and your sweet children are dearly loved by the entire Hill family. I send love to you, and a special prayer for strength that only the Lord can provide.*
