“ I would always have a inside joke with Jerry saying “go straight to bed!” And as I was little I read Coltrane a book in his cage every time I went there and when he passed away my grandmother “Jill Starks” didn’t want to tell me then because it would break my heart and I recently found out a year ago because my bus drive by his house and I never saw him out there so I questioned her and she told me.

“ Jerry was always one of my favorite cousins. The last time I saw him was when my father died in 2011, and we laughed about how much we had changed. He thought I looked like Byron and he reminded me of Cordell. Love and condolences from Michael and Tom in Wisconsin.

“ I met Mitchum years ago at post1799. He loved to dance and have fun. Thought of him as a big brother. I lived across the road from for 5 years. If I ran into him at the post or in town He would always say Hey neighbor where ya been ? You don't call you don't write then he'd give me a big smile and a hug. You will be missed old friend!
