His greatest role in life was being “Pop” to his grandchildren.

My heart breaks for you and the family he left behind. Ive heard so many stories of Jerry that i felt like I knew him personally. Jerry was loved by all that new him. And Mary loves you also. I just wanted to reach out to you and offer my condolences to you and say how sorry I am for the loss of Jerry, you and the rest of the loved ones.

“ I heard about Jerry’s illness only recently and wanted to attend his service, but was unaware he had already gone to be with Jesus. I did hear that he had a very nice service. So sorry I was not there. I got to know Jerry at the BSU at Tyler Jr. College. He was always the life of the party and we all looked forward to spending time just talking and laughing together. I know when I enter Heaven I will see him again. All I have to do is follow the laughter....until we meet again, dear friend!

“ I love you so much, Jer. The best Pop ever. I'll miss hearing your voice and seeing your sweet face. Sharing laughs, coffee creamers, and seeing those neon shirts. I owe you indefinitely on my 'tab' of paybacks. I promise I'll repay you one day when I see you again in Heaven.
