“ I love you rebel...I always enjoyed listening to you play Willie Nelson. Or miss how you would call me up every night laughing & you would tell me which comedian got you tickled. You would always make my kidneys hurt with laughter when you would imitate rack'em Willy. Hell rebel this sucks. I just want you back. But I know you're with the one who loves us the most god. So I can't be like that. My prayers and thoughts go out to everyone. Especially rebels grandma. Thank you for taking care of my best friend. God bless you.

“ I knew Jesse in junior high when I went to whitehouse. Then moved away before my freshman year. But I still remember clearly Jesse carrying that guitar around and asking me if I wanted to hear some Jimi Hendrix. He definitely was a truly wonderful and talented person. Just wish I could have stayed around Texas to watch him grow into what a tremendous artist he became with his music. I am so impressed. It breaks my heart because in my mind my last memory is us being so young and how he had so much will and passion for his music. I wish I had known Jesse better and wish I could tell him that going through videos of his music has made me appreciate his talent and want to save them all. My prayers go out to all jesses family, but I know that he must be enjoying playing his music for Jesus and everyone else in heaven who wanted to hear him play up there. 💜

“ May the love and comfort of the Lord Jesus fill the Stewart families hearts during this time of loss. I had the privilege and honor to get to come by and set a spell and pick guitars with Jesse aka "Rebel" this past fall. It was one of my lifes greatest adventures. U see I happen to be one of the Virginia Truckers. I always told Jesse I was his biggest fan and how amazing I thought he was. Im sure that he has more #1 fans than he could ever know. One of my favorite things that he would do is ask to speak to my wife if she happened to be in the truck with me on a trip. Hed say " Bridget your beautiful and I hope you have a good day". We both love u Rebel and will miss u dearly.

“ I would like to extend my heartfelt condolences to the family of Jesse during this difficult time. I knew him as Rebel from Texas. He would always stop by and keep us company as we rolled down the road at night. Many times we wouldn't have to turn on a radio because he would strum his guitar and entertain us with his incredible talent. I never had the opportunity to meet you in person but we did grow to have a friendship that I will never forget. Rest in peace my friend. You will be missed by many.
