“ One of the "Greatest People" God ever placed on earth. Her death is a tremendous lost to all of her friends. Jessica made us laugh and always so positive. Beautiful inside and out. I will feel the loss of Jessica in my life.

“ I just found out yesterday. Jessica was a very close friend of mine for a few years when she was living in Farmington. I am having a difficult time realizing she is gone. She was one of the most giving people I have ever met. I felt an instant connection with her. Once she moved out of the Farmington area, we lost contact and in the back of my mind, I thought we would always reconnect. Everyone who knew her and was close to her was so fortunate. I can't even begin to believe this. It is such a sad and tragic loss. I was told by her close friend Deanna that we would be doing a remembrance in February. It will be nice to share memories of Jess.
