“ Growing up with Jesse as my big brother I have so many memories of him. The saying "Quiet waters run deep" certainly fits him. Although he was a man of few words he had some deep and serious thoughts. One of the sweetest memories I hold dear is when we were growing up he would sometimes lead a song during a worship period at the South Side Church of Christ in Vinita, Okla. He always lead "Walking Alone At Eve". To this day I never sing that song without thinking of him. If you are not familiar with that song the last part of the chorus says " Rest for a weary soul once redeemed by the Saviors love, where I'll be pure and whole and live with my God above. Rest in peace my dear brother I will love you though eternity. Ruby Meador, Conroe, Texas
