“ Tim:

My little sister Kelly saw the notice in the newspaper and recognized your name if you can believe that after all these years. I'm still in Lindale/Tyler (same atty) and am doing well. Hope all is well in Arkansas

My heart goes out to you and your family. I lost my father two years ago and oddly enough, I had to attend a family (inlaw) funeral this morning in Lindale.

If you're home any time soon, stop by and see me or call for lunch to catch up.

Know that you are in my thoughts and prayers and if you need anything, please call. Our door is always open.

love, kim

“ *Dear Tallent Family:
Words cannot express the deep sorrow that our family is experiencing from the loss of our dear friend, Mr. Tallent. If I had known that Thanksgiving would be the last time that I would see him, I would have held him a lot longer when I hugged him good bye. I have always said that your family "practiced what they preached". These words do not hold truer for any other family that I have ever known. Growing up in Tyler and hanging out at your house with Debbie are the some of the fondest memories that I have and cherish the most. From the moment that my father passed away from cancer 20 years ago until now you have taken care of my mother and showed her the true meaning of friendship. For this... We love you and will always miss him!
You are in our thoughts and prayers!
Love,

“ *jimmy,
your brightly wrapped candy you last shared with me is way short of the bright disposition you shared with us in your life fully lived!
the last candy quote says it best:
"Bless the LORD, oh my soul!"
Psalms 103:1*
