“ David and I send our deepest condolences on the loss of sweet, beautiful Joan. The last time we saw her, she was sitting in the driveway enjoying her evening with neighbors, and she was smiling and full of joy - a very fond memory! Prayers and thoughts are with the family as you mourn her loss. We know she leaves everyone with happy memories of her kind heart and sweet smile. May the Lord swiftly lift her up and wrap her in His loving arms.

“ So very sorry to hear of your loss. My memories go back to times at the lake when we were kids. I was challenged to learn to swim better after going off the deep end of the floating dock. Sending love and prayers for God's comfort and peace. Truman & Pat
