“ I grew up living next to Joan in Aurora, CO. I was what you call a tween these days but Joan was like a best friend to me. I would sit on the porch with her as she watered the lawn, walk her dog Julius and watch her house when she went out of town. We would talk for hours. Joan was such a wonderful person. I know she is with God now and that brings me peace. Love you Joan!

“ Tears of joy for you Miss Joan. For you are with Our Father in Heaven and we who know you will be blessed, for we now have an amazing angel in Heaven watching out for us. I remember when you said you had a snake in your room and I was asked to come get it. When I got there I found it was just an earth worm! You and I laughed and you called me your personal hero. That was the night I first met you and my life has been forever blessed ever since. Please know you are loved by all of us and truly be missed! My love to you always, Christina Mullings

“ Ms. Langhenry, you are truly missed. I miss giving you your 5:00am wake up call, and setting up the tables and chairs for Mass for you. I remember when you came home from the hospital from an operation that you had, and you didn't want to come out of your room, and we would come down and bring you food, and play skipbo with you. I will miss the times the we joked about being Libar's. The memories that I have of you will never be forgotten.

“ *Mrs. Langhenry you will be truly missed. I remember when we both learned how to play skipbo at the same time. I remember when I would all ways deal you wild cards so you could win. you would all tell me you would share her hot sauce with me.:) after the game was over . she would tell me she was not going across the court yard because there were hiller monsters out there. :) Thanks for all the wisdom you would share about life as a whole. Around 9.pm she would always call the front desk to see if i needed anything or if I needed her help. These are just of few of the fun times we shared together. I would like to say to the family thanks for allowing her to be apart of our family here at Garden Estates for four years . we will be praying for your strength during these times. Love her dearly
