

Joann Willman Zartler

August 16, 1937 - September 3, 2021

Joann passed, peacefully, at the age of 84 on Friday, September 3rd. She was born on August 16, 1937 in Highland Park, Illinois to Christian Mathias and Albertina Willman.

Joann was preceded in death by her son, Frank Scott Zartler; and is survived by her family including: Russ, her loving husband of 62 years; daughter, Libby Tinsley (husband Randy); and grandchildren, Daryn Tinsley, Michael Tinsley, Christopher Tinsley, Alexander Zartler, Riley Zartler, Zachary Zartler and Eric Zartler; and four great-grandchildren.

A love story for the ages, Russ and Joann started dating at the age of 13, in 1949, and never separated. Rarely over the years was “Russ” not followed by “and Joann” or “Joann” not followed by “and Russ”. She loved to host her friends, lamenting as the years pressed on that she missed not seeing her friends around her table. She was fearless, following Russ’ career around the country, spending time not only in Illinois, but Northern and Southern California, finally residing in Texas. She made her life not only entertaining and making a life for her family wherever they lived but starting her own business in California and becoming a real estate agent in Texas. She was an athlete most of her life, enjoying tennis and later golf when they moved to Texas.

Rest In Peace, Jo.

Services for Joann will be held on Monday, September 13th at Emerald Bay Community Church, 160 La Salle Drive, Bullard, Texas 75757 at 3:00 p.m. with Dr. Darryle Dunks officiating.
