“ Thank you sweet sissy, for taking care of me as a baby.

For letting me pester you to sleep with you even though I had my own room.

Thank you for letting me tag along on your dates, for reading to me every night (Golden Classics) and for endless hours of playing Barbies, coloring and paper dolls.

Thank you for saving up your babysitting money to buy me a Pixie baby doll and carriage and my first teddy bear which I still have.

Thank you for every birthday cake with seven minute shiny pink frosting.

Thank you for picking me up from school in the first grade and taking me to get an ice cream sandwich at 7-11 almost every day and tolerating tears if you were late.

Thank you for answering every phone call and text with so much understanding, never judgemental and thinking the same things were funny or outrageous.

Thank you for jumping in the car with Wayne, to drive to Alabama to help with my first baby and crying on the way home because it was so hard to leave him.

Thank you for every card, never forgetting a birthday or Valentine or Halloween for every family member.

Thank you for making sure you had a Village Bakery Gingerbread Man for me at the holidays.

Thank you for getting to me as fast as you could when our precious father passed.

Thank you for checking on our mom with such devotion.

Your own family reflects your love. Your husband, your son, your daughter, your grandkids. You poured out your love on everyone. Thank you for your thoughtfulness, your example, your unconditional and steadfast love.

My gentle, selfless, loving sister...I can't imagine life without you. I will miss you, I will reach for my phone, I will always think "I need to tell Joanne".

And just this morning, I had something to tell you ...

You personified love.
