“ I didn't really kinow Joel. I had seen him a few times, the latest being over 2 years ago when Donna and I came to a Southern Gospel Music Concert in Lufkin and stopped tio see Joel and Wilma while going and coming home. I know Wilma has worn herself out caring for Joel and I pray the Lord will give her and the rest of the family peace and rest at this time.

“ Dick was a very handsome man and his obituary was beautifully written making him sound like the wonderful person that his family felt he was.

He will always be in your hearts and your memories will keep him alive in your homes.

We must keep our faith in God and trust in His will, and ask His guidance in accepting and adjusting to our loss of this loved one.

Thoughts and prayers are with your whole family.

May God Bless You.
