“ The sorrow of losing my brother John is overwhelming at times although it is the memory of all the great and wonderful times we shared growing up that brings back a little smile and a chuckle.

Life lessons that only a big brother can teach you, stories we shared, jokes we played on each other. John was always there for me in so many ways. It always brighten my day when I received his email jokes or when we would sit down and tell jokes back and forth like we did with our Dad or chat about business His genuine caring and support during my difficult health issues was greatly appreciated and helped me to keep going.

More importantly he always had time for others and shared his love of family. I'll always be proud and considered honored to have John as a brother, a friend, a mentor.

May your memories of John be fond and joyous as mine and bring comfort to you in the days to come. Cherish all your memories, my prayers are with you all.

“ Johnny was one week older than I, and my memories of our childhood are very vivid. He was a gentle, yet fun-loving cousin, and always ready for a game or two. I can still hear his giggle and see his grin. And I can still feel the love and warmth of being together with Uncle Jack, Aunt Janny and our special cousins when they would come to Dallas to see our grandparents...or we would go "north" to visit them in Ohio or Des Plaines. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with each of you.

“ John was a long time friend and a valuable asset to our industry. He was always searching for ways to grow and improve his company. His 35 years of knowledge in our industry will be a great loss.

“ When you look up the word "Gentleman" in the dictionary there is a picture of John Whiting. He was the most gracious, considerate, polite person I have ever known.

In business he keenly knew that what happened today was the result of decisions made weeks earlier. He always had a vision and a clear direction as to how that vision would be achieved. He could effectively communicate that vision to the newly hired stock boy or the CEO of a fortune 100 company with the same degree of clarity and in such a way that both thought they were the most important person in the plan.

John's absolute top priority was his family. Steven, Stacy, Josh, Hannah, and Lauren was his focus and his beloved Bonnie was the absolute center of his universe.

My most sincere desire is that my son emulate the qualities John displayed every day.

John was my best friend. With his absence every day for the rest of my life will never be as good as it would have been if John was still with us.

“ The last time we saw John was when we were saying goodbye after a lovely visit in Texas this past spring. We'd been trying to get to Tyler for years, but life got in the way. We have a wonderful group of friends who were neighbors in Hudson, OH, in the 80's. We do our best to get together at least once a year. It was an honor to call John our friend. We've shared many good times. There are special people in our lives who never leave, even after they are gone. John is one of those people.
