“ My grandparents, John and Elderado Rozell thought the world of Brother Anders. I have childhood memories of Brother Anders coming out to their house to pick peaches. Oh, how excited we were that the preacher was coming! I remember many sermons he preached at Northwest. I was so pleased when he came to visit me in the hospital several years ago. I loved that he delivered my grandmother's eulogy. He was a shining example of Jesus and a fine, faithful man. He will be missed.

“ I was visiting the Whitehouse congregation last night and learned of Johnny's passing. If I were to set down and make a list of nice people that I have known, I would start with Johnny. I can still remember the encouragement I received as a young man from him and his sermons. Jo, you and the rest of the family have the prayers of all of us who have been influenced by Johnny. He lives on in the way we think and conduct our lives.
