“ As I sat with Johnny Mack the last few days, they have seemed as if we were on a journey, one which we were with him, but he was going on, and we had to stop. I could sense the angels in the room, waiting to carry him to heaven.. So hard to let go, but we had to. He is at peace now, and you could see it on his face the minute he completed his journey. I am so proud to have had him for a brother, he was a wonderful , fine man, who I love and will miss very much, but we will all be together again someday.

“ My heartfelt sympathy to the family at this time. Johnny Mack Whitworth led by example; how to run the race of life and with his passing he taught how to finish the race. He finished his with faith, grace, and dignity. His story does not end, it continues in the lives of his family and those who've been fortunate enough to have been blessed by his guidance, influence, and love. Rest in peace Mr. Whitworth. The light of Heaven shines even brighter today.

“Mr. Whitworth is and always will be a dear friend. He put lots of smiles on my face and I always looked forward to hear what he had to say. I last saw him during Francis Williams' funeral. After I signed the guest book, I looked across the room and saw him sitting at the end of the pew. I made a b-line straight to him. It was refreshing to see him after living out of state for so long. He opened his wallet pulled several pictures and had updates on everyone. He was proud. And, he has lots to proud of. You have a beautiful family. Please know that you are in my prayers.

“Words cannot tell how much Johnny Mack has touched me and friends withing our small community. Sometimes you wish you can roll back the hands of time and play back some of the good moments that still keep us nested together. I can some how remember that Jeep Wrangler he used to drive and at times he would take us behind home field of our Ole Dust Bowl we played in and climb that steep hill which sat behind home plate. But now he has gone on to play ball on a field that only those who have lived by the gracious word that only God possesses shall go. So in these words I say to you "fear not family because Johnny Mack has sled into home plate and is safe in God's hands."

“ My Uncle Johnny Mack was one of a kind! He was a kind, loving man who you could always count on if you needed him! He made every family gathering a lot of fun. You never knew what joke he was going to pull on you next! We all have a lot of fun memories of him to hold onto until we see him again in Heaven. I know he is walking around Heaven with my Granny and all our other loved ones. I am proud to know we have one more special angel to look over us. My thoughts and prayers are with all of our family in the days to come.

Love,
Jill

“ I have many great memories of Coach Johnny Mack and the summers spent playing little league baseball. Those were indeed good times, as friendships were made, life lessons learned, and kids could simply be kids. Johnny Mack in many ways was a big kid himself as he was quick with the wit and never shied away from a practical joke. That was one of his many charms. As I have grown older, I look back with profound fondness at the years spent fielding ground balls that Johnnie Mack hit and can't help but consider myself blessed.

Sue, Donnie and John Darren, my heartfelt condolences go out to you.
