“ I worshiped with Joe and Anne at All Saints' Episcopal Church in West Plains, MO. I followed Joe's lead when I became a lay minister for communion and still think of him at the altar. God bless all who mourn today. May Joe rest in peace and rise in glory. Much love, “ Joe was the sweetest father in law to me and grandfather to my children, he would patiently follow my children around our acreage in the mountains with his video camera and captured some of the most precious moments, be it Christopher pulling out flowers for his moma by the root, or a dance extravaganza by my girls, that would often be quite lengthy times 4 girls! He went above and beyond to be present for their graduations and weddings etc. ...always with his camera in tow! Full of grace and love. He will be fondly and lovingly remembered always. Rest in peace Joe.
