“ I remember Joe from the early 80s. We worked security at Green Acres Bowl. Joe, Hebert, and myself would work together. I was only to oversee and report either to Joe or Hebert. Some good time.

“ TJC’s Interpreter Training Program faculty/staff extend our deepest condolences to his wife, Tina, family and friends. It was evident he was a devoted husband and father and no doubt will be missed by many. While suffering has ended, those left on earth are mourning. We pray for comfort, strength and peace during this bittersweet time. R McKinzie”
