Dear Joe, friend since childhood, It is with great sorrow to say goodbye for now. It is with great joy to know you are with our Holy Father. Thank you for your kindness, your sweet and gentle nature, your laughter and love of family and friends. Praying for peace, love and comfort for your wife, Linda. To Christin, Brad, and Christopher, my heart sends love and prayers in memory of your dad. He always had such a great loving daddy's twinkle in his eyes from the moment he became daddy so many years ago in their little home in Terrell. He was so excited when he got the Mazda family car. He looked out for family and friends. Remembering church, school, young adult life, now, he always remains a truly beautiful soul who has enriched and blessed us all. God bless you all and hold and comfort you today and always. Sweet friend, fly high with the angels until we meet again. ❤️🙏🙏

I have only known Joe for five years but considered him a good friend. In that time I never heard him say anything bad about anybody and was always full of positivity. He was a true Man of God and shared his beliefs with others. He will deeply be missed by all you knew him. Prayers for Linda, Christopher, and Cristin.

Joe was always a kind soul! I met Joe through his wife Linda with whom I worked with at Brookshire's. From time to time, Joe & I would visit & talk about our love for hunting. The most important thing I know was Joe's love for his family & his love for God! I will be praying for you Linda & Christopher!

I am thankful for the times I was able to sit in on a Sunday school class taught by Joe. Clearly he loved to be in the Word, teach and discuss the Bible, and share the love of God. Always with a ready smile and warm greeting, Joe truly was an image bearer of Christ. Linda, I often smiled as I saw Joe gazing lovingly at you, his beautiful wife, as you sang in the choir. I will pray that God holds you and your children close, in the days and weeks ahead.

I had the pleasure of knowing and working with Joe. Joe was a very unique man who left his mark not only on this world but on everyone he met. I will always remember his willingness to help others, his contagious positive attitude, and his ability to encourage and lift others up no matter what the circumstances were. He was extremely smart and thrived on learning something new. He was also humble and would say it didn't matter who got the credit. He was a great Christian that influenced others to be better. I thank God for the blessing of knowing Joe and will miss him every day. My prayers are and will continue to be with his family and those who knew him.
