“ Mrs Fielding was a part of my life as long as I can remember. Church was the place I always saw her and school events. She was always kind. Growing up in Whitehouse was magical and my elders i interacted with taught me so much like respect manners and kindness. She was one of those people to me in Whitehouse. Prayers for the entire family

“ I was blessed to have know such a sweet and caring soul. Heaven has definitely gained a beautiful angel. She always had a smile and cheerful persona for me which in turn made me smile and enjoy her company.

A few years ago she picked a cross necklace from my jewelry collection that she proudly wore and treasured which made me feel like the best gift I had ever given someone. Love you mama Joy.
