“Paco, Amber "Pooh", Tyler, Sunshine, Robert and Jeff, This is a tribute to your Mom, Sister and "Our Family".

Where to begin...."Julio" my everything! As you said in your last days "you taught me to walk and I was yours". I would like to thank you for that and all of your guidance in my life through my teens, womanhood and motherhood. You always took me under your arms and gave me encouragement and strength to carry on through the ups and downs and MADE me know I was your family. We shared so much, words can never express how much I feel and will miss you dearly. You were the wind beneath my wings who would say "awh Tanya it's not that bad" make me laugh and realize that it wasn't. You were the best mom and friend and I know your kids feel so lucky to have had a mom like you that would work hard and struggle to give them just what they needed. You did a great job...for they know love and truth. I am so glad that you are at peace now and in Heaven with my Mom, Daddy, Brother Tom, Brother Squash and John Lennon. I know that I will always have yall watching over me. I will be waiting for a sign from you, to let me know you are here. TV, Movies and The Enquirer will never be the same without "My One True Friend". I was so lucky to be by your side in your last days at Hospice and will never forget the fun, loving and sincere times we shared. The last day I saw you before I left you, you showed so much strength and will to go home one last time and you made it happen! "I'm impressed" and this time it is for real!! As I shared my thoughts and feelings with you that I had written as you slept our last week together, I cried and you wiped my tears, twirled my hair and gave me the MOST loving look in your eyes...still taking care of me. Thanks for that, I know now and remember your love forever through your eyes. I will always give the same to your children, "our children" so rest in peace my sweet. One last thing, what a great day to enter Heaven my son Trey Bob's 18th Birthday. I now have two reasons to honor and cherish my beloved on April 27th and celebrate life and good times.....IMAGINE

Until we meet again-

Forever Love, Tanya

“ Robert, Jeff, Amber, Tyler, and Paco,
I wish so very much that I could be there with all of you and the rest of our "family". Julie was very special to me and we could always make each other laugh and and cry together. I will miss her greatly. She was a wonderful caring person and great Mother, Sister, Daughter, and friend. The last time I spoke with her I told her how much I felt blessed having her for a friend all these years and how much I respected her bravery and the peace she had found and she said when God's chosen time came she was ready to go and be with her precious Daddy. I just said "give him a big hug from me and I know you both will be watching over us." She knew that Tyler would be well taken care of. As we all hurt in our hearts for the great loss we all feel let us also celebrate her life as long as we were graced with her presence here on earth. She will forever be in my heart and memories. My thoughts and prayers will be with you all.
All my love,
Sherry
