

Karen Sue Davault

December 11, 1948 - July 15, 2022

Services for Karen Sue Davault, age 73, of Bullard, Texas will be held on Thursday, July 21, 2022 at 10:00 a.m. at Flint Campus of Green Acres Baptist Church with Rev. Kevin Burdette officiating. Burial will follow at Cathedral in The Pines in Tyler under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home, Tyler, Texas.

Mrs. Davault passed away Friday, July 15, 2022 with some of her family members in her home near Bullard, Texas. She was born December 11, 1948 in Fort Worth, Texas, and was adopted at the age of 2 by Gwen (Mimi) and Richard (Papa) Clauser.

Karen was a member of Green Acres Baptist Church, Flint Campus. She graduated from L. D. Bell High School, Hurst, Texas. Karen had a creative bent, especially in cooking, and enjoyed making quilts, needle point, rug hooking, machine embroidery, sewing, and most anything in the creative wool or decorating arenas. She also enjoyed traveling.

Karen was preceded in death by Richard Clauser, dad, and Gwen (Mimi) Clauser, mom. She is survived by her loving family including Ed Davault, husband; Regina Jeannie Cintron, sister; Karen Jean Gandy, daughter, Larry Gandy, son-in-law; Todd Davault, son, and Heidi Davault, daughter-in-law; David Davault, son, and Tiffany Davault, daughter-in-law; Jennifer Davault, daughter; ten grandchildren (four are by marriage) and one great-granddaughter to be born in August.

Pallbearers will be Steven Tramble, Neal Billups, Randy Cheatham, Franz Steingrube, Chris Dyer, Richard Wilmoth, and Steve Wolf. Honorary pallbearers will be grandchildren of Karen Davault.

“ Beautiful lady who I know will be missed greatly. Many years ago she taught me how to quilt and do so many different kinds of crafts. She was so nice and kind and patient. My condolences.
