

Katha Sue Stevens

April 9, 1930 - March 10, 2013

Services for Katha Sue Miller Stevens, 82, of Flint, will be held on Thursday, March 14, 2013 at 11:00 AM at Noonday Baptist Church with Rev. Park Robertson officiating.

A graveside service will follow at Ash Creek Cemetery in Azle on Thursday, March 14, 2013 at 4:00 PM under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home.

Mrs. Stevens passed away Sunday, March 10, 2013 at The Hospice of East Texas.

She was born April 9, 1930 in Reno, Texas to Clarence and Mattie Sude Williams Miller.

Mrs. Stevens graduated from Azle High School in 1946, where she was the Homecoming Queen.

Sue was a member of Noonday Baptist Church.

Mrs. Stevens was an accountant.

In addition to her parents, Sue was preceded in death by husband, George Oliver Stevens; brother, LaVoy Miller and sister, Earleen Miller.

She is survived by her loving family including son, George Alan Stevens and wife Marilyn of Lewisville; daughter, Tammy K. Stevens of The Colony; brother, Donald O. Miller of Granbury and friend, Truitt Stamps. She is also survived by grandchildren, Paul Stevens, Mark Stevens and Sherrill Stevens-Klaver; and by great-grandchildren, Della Stevens, Kate Stevens and Faith Stevens.

Sue loved her church and enjoyed socializing with her church friends.

Traveling was at the top of her list of things to do, she loved to dance and was a very social person.

Visitation is scheduled from 6:00 to 8:00 PM on Wednesday, March 13, 2013 at Stewart Family Funeral Home, 7525 Old Jacksonville Highway, in Tyler.

If desired, memorials may be made to Shriners Children's Hospital, 6977 Main St., Houston, Texas 77030 or Noonday Baptist Church, 16701 CR 196, Tyler, Texas 75703.
