

Kay Blow

July 19, 1932 - June 14, 2017

A memorial service for Kay Blow, 84, of Tyler is set for 2 p.m. Saturday, June 17, at Stewart Family Funeral Home. A visitation time will be held Friday, June 16, 2017 from 6 to 8 p.m. at the funeral home.

Kay died Wednesday evening, June 14, after a brief illness. She was preceded in death by her husband, Frank Alton Blow.

Beloved "Nanny" to seven grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren, Kay was devoted to family above all else in this world. She was a native of Tyler and worked for many years in the local offices of the Cotton Belt Railroad.

She was a member of Grace Community Church, where she was active in the Sparrows program. Chaplain Elwood Stetson will officiate at the memorial service.

Survivors include three children, Steve Blow (Lori) of Sunnyvale, Texas; Craig Blow (Jan) of Aubrey, Texas; and Nina Rochelle (Ronnie) of Tyler. She is also survived by a brother-in-law, Dick Pate, and an uncle, Warren Wilson, both of Tyler.

A private graveside service will be scheduled at a later day at the Hudson Family Cemetery in Tyler.

“ Aunt Kay was one of the most wonderful, sweet, kind ladies that I have ever known. She is such a big part of so many great memories I have of traveling to Tyler to visit our relatives. I have never met a finer Christian lady, and even though her family and friends grieve, we know that she is rejoicing with all her loved ones who have gone on before her. We rest in the peace of knowing God's promises are always true, and we will see her again. We will miss your sweet, kind loving manner and voice! We love you!
