“ To all the family of Kay. Kay and I were best friends in high school. Over the years we have stayed in touch off and on and though I haven't seen her in several years I think of her often and how much fun we had over the years. Never a dull moment when she was around. Today I think of her with sadness. She will be missed.

My thoughts and prayers go out to Mary Jo, Cheri, Pam, Donnie, Darrell their children and all of the family.

*Love and God Bless

“ Mom, so many things I want to say right now. Oh how I already miss you. My mother, my best-friend.....having you as a mother is one God's many blessing that he has given me. I still have you with me always. I still have a mother even though I will not see you again until I join you in Heaven. You are at peace now and I know that but right now I just want to hold you one last time. I will honor you everyday day of my life. Your darling grandchildren will always know you and they too still HAVE a grandmother. Everyday that passes is a day closer to being able to hug, kiss, sing and dance with you. memories is what will keep me going.....how blessed I was and I thank you mommy for loving me the way you did and for loving my children your grand-babies so very much. I love you always and forever.....

“ I knew Kay briefly when she was a nurse for Dr. Whetsall, but through Pam, I have kept up with Kay's many battles with her health. Luckily, I get to remember Kay as the healthy, bubbly, friendly, professional woman I knew. Although Kay's family and friends will miss her, they can be happy that her suffering has ended. God Bless Kay and everyone who misses her.

“ Mom, I miss you so much. When I look at my children I see all the love you had for them. All the love we have for you is beyond words. I do not know how I will go on without talking or seeing you again here on earth. I find peace knowing that you are in Heaven with Papa Jack, Mamaw and Papaw. I know that you are at peace and no longer in pain. I LOVE YOU!!! I know I will be with you some day and you will be waiting for me. Tell everyone hi for me and always, always know that I will have you in my heart always and forever. You were my mommy first and that is something that can never be taken away. Rest in peace.

I LOVE YOU always and forever...April
