“ I was Kayla's computer teacher her sophomore year. This past year, I saw her regularly in the halls. She always has a smile on her face, a friendly greeting and she is looking for a friend to hug. She is a delightful young lady and I will miss her. She loves her friends and family. I saw the love she has for her friends at school. She took her school work seriously and worked hard. The last time I talked to her was during Mr. Young's tutorials. Her passion was being close to her friends and family. I remember her talking about weekend travels to visit family members. Her face expressed the love she had for each of them. I am comforted to know that she is a Christian. Her life reflected the love of Christ. I will pray for all of her family, friends and the teachers that love her.

“ Dear Helen, Erin and Family,

Our words cannot even begin to express the aching sorrow of our hearts at this time regarding your loss of Kayla. She was such a precious young lady in every sense of the word. Her warm smiles and tender hugs commmunicated such beauty, and we will miss her terribly. Her love for God, for family and for all people was always so genuinely apparent. The two of you and your entire family are in our hearts and prayers for God's strength and comfort to sustain you physically, emotionally and spiritually today and in the days ahead. Feel His presence and His grief, as well. We love you dearly.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. This is one of the most difficult things we must face in this life. May it comfort you to know that others are deeply touched by your loss. But the bible assures us at Psalms 34:18 that God is near to those broken in heart and those crushed in spirit he saves. He also promises that we will be able to see our loved ones again. Jesus own words found at John 5:28,29 tells us there will be a resurrection. What a wonderful hope! He also says that soon on the earth there will be no more pain, suffering and especially death. Revelation 21:3-5 We anxiously await the day when we will no longer lose those we love. May these bible thoughts bring you comfort at this most difficult time.

“ So sorry to hear about Kayla. She is a great young lady. Our prayers and hearts go out to Helen and Milton along with all the other family and friends. She is in a better place now even though those of us left behind can not understand that. She will be there watching over you when you are in need and think of her. Again and hearts and prayers go with you through these tough times.

“ I cannot imagine what you are going through right now, but please know that prayers are going up for the family. I've heard wonderful things about Kayla from church class members and my heart breaks for the pain I cannot fathom. I know there is nothing I can say to help other than our family is praying for yours.

In Christian love and care,

Goodspeeds

“ We pray, we believe, and we know Jesus gave his life for our sins. We spend such a short time on earth to be with our father forever. Kayla is with the Lord. As we are on the earth still, our pain and sympathy will be with Kayla's family as they grieve, but take comfort, that the angel Kayla was on Earth, she will be even valuable to Jesus in Heaven. Pray for the family, but never doubt, Kayla is at peace and in the arms of the Lord. We will miss her but will embrace the day she greets us in Heaven.

“ Our deepest and heartfelt sorrow for your loss. There are no words of men to express the pain you must feel, but the words of the Lord give us comfort and hope. "Yet in my flesh shall I see God, and my eyes shall behold, and not another". Bill and Luana
