“ My husband and I knew Keith from the dance club. We took group classes together and switched partners so Keith would be my partner sometimes for practice. He was always fun to talk to -- we shared a love of "Once Upon A Time" and politics that we would message back and forth on Facebook about. He has such a tremendous pride in his son. He just beamed whenever he spoke of him. He was smart, he was witty and he was compassionate. We are sorry for your great loss.
