“Dee, I am so sorry for the loss of your Dad. I actually knew him before we started working together. He was a great guy who came in and taught me a few things about working for the Postal Service. I will truly miss him coming in with that big smile of his. You, your Mom and the rest of the family are in my prayers during this sad time. God Bless each and everyone of you!

“Ken always had a smile on his face and a word to say. I worked with him in Tyler years ago. He was one of those people who was always fun to be around.

I know you will miss him and it is a sad time now, but I imagine Ken already has someone in Heaven laughing.

“My Uncle Kenneth was the epitome of "Joy". He always had a smile and laugh. From that, I always knew he was a Godly man and a family man. I am saddened by his passing, but am also comforted that he has just been placed in the presence of God. I wish I could attend the memorial service, but please know that I am lifting the family in my prayers. We will miss him, but know that he is with the Lord in a better place.

“ Ken will surely be missed. He was a good example of what a postal employee should be, always happy and such an optimist. Such a blessing just to have known Ken Smith.

“ I spent today remembering some of the stories and jokes that Uncle Kenneth would tell. I also thought about his wonderful singing and what a happy day it must be in heaven to welcome him to God's choir! He was a shining example of a good christian man, a devoted husband and loving father. He was so proud of his grandkids and loved to talk about them. He would light up a room when he walked in. I will always remember his laughing eyes and that mischevious grin. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family.

“ Carol, Forrest, Glenda and Family,
I was shocked and saddened to hear the news. As a nervous young girl, I had the honor of playing the organ with Kenneth as the music director during Sunday School at Central Baptist Church while Glenda played the piano. He was always so kind and encouraging to me. The following well known poem truly expresses my gratitude to Kenneth Smith for allowing me to be "In His Dash":

I'm Glad You Were In My Dash

*I read of a man who stood to speak
At the funeral of a friend.
He referred to the dates on his tombstone,
From the beginning...to the end.
He noted that first came his date of birth
And spoke the following date with tears,
But he said what mattered most of all
Was the dash between those years.
(1940 - 2007)
For that dash represents all the time
That he spent alive on earth . . .
And now only those who loved him
Know what that little line is worth.
For it matters not, how much we own;
The cars . . . the house . . . the cash,
What matters is how we live and love
And how we spend our dash.
So think about this long and hard . . .
Are there things you'd like to change?
For you never know how much time is left,
That can still be rearranged.
If we could just slow down enough
To consider what's true and real,
And always try to understand
The way other people feel
And be less quick to anger,*

*And show appreciation more
And love the people in our lives
Like we've never loved before.
If we treat each other with respect,
And more often wear a smile..
Remembering that this special dash
Might only last a little while.
So, when your eulogy's being read
With your life's actions to rehash...
Would you be proud of the things they say
About how you spent your dash?*
