

Kenneth Charles Stegemoeller

September 16, 1935 - June 6, 2013

Kenneth Charles Stegemoeller, 77, died Wednesday, June 6, 2013, at his home in Emerald Bay. He was born September 16, 1935, in Sagerton, Texas. Kenneth was a graduate of Rule High School and Texas Tech College. He retired in 1997 after 32 years with Borden Co., Resinite Division as Director of Sales and Marketing for North America.

Kenneth was a committed Christian, and he loved being in church for worship and Bible study. He was a faithful member of Marvin United Methodist Church, serving as usher. He was a member of Pairs and Parents Sunday School Class.

Kenneth is preceded in death by his parents F.A. (Fritz) and Henrietta Knipling Stegemoeller and his brother and sister-in-law Dr. Harvey Stegemoeller and his wife Marian.

Kenneth was an honorable man. He valued truth and integrity; justice and mercy. He loved deeply: God, family and country. He worked hard at whatever he undertook and saw the job through to completion. Ken was an exemplary father—loving, encouraging, protecting. He was a good friend to many and a close friend to few. He loved nature and living on the lake.

“ Dear Nan,

I am so sorry to learn of Ken's passing. I have often thought of you and Ken, especially when I drove down Uhl Road. I have so many fond memories of both of you in my early years in DeSoto. Ken was one of my first supporters when I ran for the School Board. You and I shared so much in Preschool PTA especially the Screenings for vision. If you are ever in the DeSoto area, I am still here and so are many of your friends. Let us know you are coming. Dotty Germino and the old Preschool Gang have a luncheon once a year during the holidays.

Again I am so sorry about Ken's passing. I know you are a strong person but the loss of the love of your life is very hard. Please know I understand and I care. Tom passed 11most 16 years ago and I miss him still.

Love to you and your family
