“ Sherry we did not stop to speak to you at the service. I know you had enough to deal with that day. We wanted you to know how much we loved Ken and always looked forward to seeing him and following news about how he was doing everytime we went to the store. More than once has he told us that he loved us and God did too. His faith was strong and I know your faith in God will carry you through these next day, month, and years.
