

Kent Deatherage

May 21, 1966 - October 16, 2024

Kent was born in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma on May 21, 1966, to Kenneth and Glenda Deatherage. He went to be with Jesus on October 16, 2024.

A member of Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, he was a devout Roman Catholic who gave his heart to Jesus at an early age.

He graduated from Broken Arrow High School and Oklahoma State University. He was a member of Kappa Sigma Fraternity and worked for Thomas Scientific.

Kent's world was his family. He met the love of his life Paige and together they were their daughters' biggest fans and could be found cheering their girls to victory from the sidelines. One of his favorite quotes was "Do not get comfortable with being good, good is the enemy of great." He loved sports, hunting, tennis, talking politics, and a good snack. He was a friend. He and Collin shared endless stories of their hilarious hunting adventures. He genuinely loved people, touched many lives and had a way of making everyone feel comfortable and important.

Kent is survived by his loving wife of 25 years, Paige Deatherage and their three beautiful, strong daughters, Lilly Deatherage, Kate Deatherage, and Audrey Deatherage; his parents, Kenneth and Glenda Deatherage; parents in love, Lenny and Janie Danna; his sister, Kelley Bussell and husband, John; brother-in-law, Marcus Danna; nephews, Dylan Myers and wife, Kayla, Hayden Myers and wife, Anna, Luke Dahl and wife, Angel, Elijah Bussell; niece, Haley Bussell; grandnephews, Cash Myers, Cale Myers and Otto Myers; grandniece, Aurora Dahl; and numerous cousins and friends.

Pallbearers are Collin Andrus, Dylan Myers, Cash Myers, John Bussell, Marcus Danna, and Braden Buche.

A funeral Mass for Kent will be held on Monday, October 21, 2024, at 10:00 a.m. at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Tyler with Father Andrew Smith officiating. Burial will follow at Rose Lawn Cemetery in Tyler under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home.

“ Kent was a beautiful person. He would see the good in a person and encourage the best in him. He was a great friend, wonderful father, and loving husband. We will always treasure the time spent with him and his sweet family. Our love is with Paige and his girls.... Mark, Christi and the girls.
