

Kimberly Kidd Maddox

February 10, 1959 - March 18, 2024

Kimberly Kay Maddox was called home to be with the Lord on March 18, 2024. She was born on February 10, 1959, to Levi Lee Kidd and Patricia Trant Kidd. On August 12, 1983, Kim graduated with a bachelor's degree in Elementary Education from The University of Texas at Tyler. Upon graduation, she went to work for her grandmother keeping books and managing her father's office. She dedicated her life to working for her family and their various businesses. Kim was a member of St. Paul's Methodist Church and volunteered in various capacities within the church throughout her life.

Kim always had a glass half full mentality, looking for the brighter side of things. She loved to travel and see new places with her family. She was always on the go with her family alongside her. She never failed to have something fun to look forward to. Kim was adventurous in all aspects of life as she loved gardening, canning peach preserves and tomato relish, traveling, hosting holiday gatherings, trying new things, making bread, and entertaining her grandchildren. She lived life to the fullest. Kim was an astute businesswoman with skills she learned from working with her grandmother, Opal Kidd, and her father, Levi Kidd, for more than four decades. Whenever she was faced with challenges, she would meet them head on and resolve them, no matter what needed to be done. Kim was a rock for her family to lean on. She always offered a friendly smile, a helping hand, advice, or a shoulder to cry on to those in need. There were many lessons learned from the life Kim lived. She taught her family and friends to work hard and to always remember to play hard too. Kim lived in the moment and didn't let life pass her by. She loved generously and allowed the Lord to lead her in all she did. The memories made and lessons learned will never be forgotten. To know Kim is to love her. May she rest with our Father in Heaven.

Kim was preceded in death by her parents, Levi Lee Kidd and Patricia Trant Kidd, her brothers, Lex Kidd and Trant Kidd, her aunt, Barbara Caserta, her uncle, Hubert Kidd and her grandson, Thomas Allen Fuller. She is survived by her husband, Tim Maddox; her children, Kathryn Maddox Moore, Patrick and Lauren Fuller, Tommy and Sandy Fuller, and Kevin and Carrie Maddox; her grandchildren, Madelyn Moore, Andrew Fuller, Ella Fuller, Samantha and Levi Hughes, Kyndel Fuller, and Chase Maddox; her great-grandchildren, Preslee Hughes and Rush Hughes; along with several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

“But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.”

Matthew 6:33-34

Pallbearers will be Cameron Kidd, Karson Kidd, Levi Kidd, Zach Eiche, Matt Heidrick, and Frank Bolton. Honorary Pallbearers will be Harry Caserta, and Dick Fuchs.

I am so sorry for the family and have fond memories of Kim. We lived one block away when our boys were in grade school. They were a foursome to be reckoned with! She was so involved with all the neighborhood kids and we shared some fun times. Prayers for Tommy and Patrick and the rest of the family. She was such a special lady.
