Services for Kimberly Marie Teeples, 50, of Whitehouse, Texas will be held on Saturday, May 9, 2015, at 11:00 AM at Stewart Family Funeral Home; 7525 Old Jacksonville Highway, in Tyler with Bishop Ryan Teeples officiating.

Mrs. Teeples passed away Tuesday, May 5 at her home.

She was born April 2, 1965 in Seattle, Washington to Jim and Barbara Baldon.

Kim was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. She graduated from Ogden High School in Ogden, Utah. Kim had a beautiful singing voice and loved to perform in both public and private. She and her husband enjoyed traveling and had several opportunities to pursue this, both together and with their children. But dearest to her heart was her family.

Family time together was always about great company, good food, singing and expressing love for each other. She loved spending time with her children and grand-children, all of whom now share her love of music and her talent for singing.

She is survived by her loving family including her husband of 32 years, Shaun of Whitehouse, Texas; daughters, Jessica Early (Robert) and Brittany Matthews of Buffalo, Texas; son, Matthew Teeples of Tyler, Texas; daughter, Ashlyn Teeples of Tyler. She has 10 grandchildren, Shaun, Quincy, Jesslyn, Justin, Madeline, Traven, Kayden, Riley, Ryan and Harrison. She is also survived by her parents, a sister, Heather Sanchez (Louie), of Fort Collins, Colorado, and a brother, Trevor Baldon (Mindy), of Ogden, Utah.

The family wishes to offer their sincerest appreciation for your condolences and support.
