“ Kyle was a student of mine at TJC. I have known his Mom and Dad since Ted and I were in college together. Kyle had an infectious smile and an energetic, positive personality. When he would come by the office he just took over and made everyone feel better. He had charm, wit, and a smile that would light up the room. The world is a little dimmer since his tragic loss, but for awhile, the world smiled because he was in it.

Our deepest sympathies to his family and friends.

“ Losing our children brings us to our knees with an understanding that while we may never know God's purpose for any action in our family, we can know that His purpose is beyond our knowledge and we, through faith, accept that in our world, incidents occur that are beyond our control. God's Love extends beyond these occurrences and will support us through all of life's undercurrents.

“ Dear Conover family, Kyle's fiance and children,

I'm deeply sorry for your loss. This was terrible news for many of us that went to school with him, played football with him, and were friends of his. Unfortunately, it's been a long, long time for some of us. One being myself. But I wanted to extend my deepest sympathies.

Mrs. Conover, you were my favorite teacher at Bullard. You really made learning fun. I'll never forget your warm smile. That's obviously where Kyle got his warm smile. I always remember Kyle smiling. And I'm sure he's smiling in heaven right now.

God Bless,

“ Ted, Suzy and family my thoughts are with you.

The Rose Beyond The Wall

*A rose once grew where all could see,
Sheltered beside a garden wall,
And, as the days passed swiftly by,
It spread its branches, straight and tall.*

*One day, a beam of light shone through
A crevice that had opened wide-
The rose bent gently toward its warmth
Then passed beyond to the other side.*

*Now, you who deeply feel its loss,
Be comforted - the rose blooms there-
It's beauty even greater now,
Nurtured by God's own loving care.*

I would like to say that the few times that Kyle and I did talk he had such a nice spirit about him. He was a pleasure to talk to. He will be missed and may the Lord continue to bless the family and put a sense of peace and understanding in their hearts. I pray that the family will have strength and wisdom.
